NOTICE

04/04/2026

In compliance to the order passed by the honorable D.M. Siwan, here are the few points that have to be taken into consideration.

1. The school does not have the facility to provide any stationary items to the students. They are free to purchase shoes, books, copies and any other related items from any shop. However the uniform of students has not changed from the beginning of the school and will still continue further.
2. The list of books for the session 2026-27 and the details of the uniform have already been uploaded in the website of school and also been displayed at the notice board of the school.
3. The uniform of the students has not been changed from the beginning of the school and the same uniform will continue further.

Principal
J R Convent